

Ellis: Get ready for a 'gold mine' of new voices

By Bill Ellis

Contact

January 28, 2005

'Acoustic Series'

Broken String Records isn't the only indie touting a regular new music showcase in town. There's Response Records' weekly local music stage on Fridays at Newby's. And now Cordova-based Retriever Records will launch a free monthly showcase, "The Acoustic Series," with a 7 p.m. concert on Wednesday at the P & H Cafe, 1532 Madison.

Retriever owner Bryan Hayes, who recently put out his fine roots rock debut, Just a Man, will perform at the inaugural event as will David Weatherman and David Umsted. "Juke N' Jamm," the radio program hosted by fun-loving Mempho-philes Bob Holden and Joe Terry, will tape the P&H show for future broadcast ("Juke N' Jamm" can be heard Saturdays from 1-5 p.m. on WQOX-FM 88.5).